Vrindavan - a spiritual world

If one has a desire to feel the Lord Krishna, there's no better place than Vrindavan. The ancient city is a major religious destination for the devotees across the globe. Just 12 kms. from Mathura, situated on the banks of Yamuna, Vrindavan evokes the playfulness and lovable characteristics of Shri Krishna. This is the woods where he frolicked with the gopis and Shri Radha. Noted for around 5000 temples, both old and modern, Vrindavan has major divine destinations including Banke Bihari, ISKCON and Madan Mohan temples.

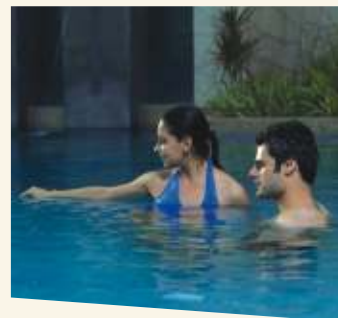

In the eyes of a devotee, Vrindavan is not a city, it's a spiritual world!
