Kurukshetra

यदा यदा हि धर्मस्य वलानिर्भवति भारत।
अभ्युत्थानमधर्मस्य तदात्मानं सृजाभ्यहम्।।

The Bhagavad Gita ("The Divine Song of God")

is the essence of the Vedas and Upanishads.
It is a book with sublime thoughts and practical instructions on Action.

Why do you worry without cause? Whom do you fear without reason? Who can kill you? The soul is neither born, nor does it die.

Whatever happened, happened for the good; whatever is happening, is happening for the good; whatever will happen, will also happen for the good only. You need not have any regrets for the past. You need not worry for the future. The present is happening...

What did you lose that you cry about? What did you bring with you, which you think you have lost? What did you produce, which you think got destroyed? You did not bring anything - whatever you have, you received from here. Whatever you have given, you have given only here. Whatever you took, you took from God. Whatever you gave, you gave to him. You came empty handed, you will leave empty handed. What is yours today, belonged to someone else yesterday, and will belong to someone else the day after tomorrow. You are mistakenly enjoying the thought that this is yours. It is this false happiness that is the cause of your sorrows.

Our HERITAGE has been our grounding,
and it has brought us PEACE

*God is making his presence felt yet again.
And he's asking you to make the right choice in the right place.*

So where is this right place?

Kurukshetra - Where else can the universal truth, the light of knowledge and the flow of wisdom and eternal peace come alive?
This is the place for astuteness, acumen, good judgment and intelligence – where personal, professional, emotional and spiritual reasons come alive for people of all temperaments, for all times.

Change like Sri Krishna told Arjun is second nature to humans. Right from the Neolithic man, across to the medieval knights and to the modern day real estate group, it is the victor that takes it all. Survival of the fittest and only the best. And Kurukshetra too loves winners.

Any wonder then that this is the place where Divine Group wishes to create the latest evolution of urban business and retail - commercial centres with edifices that are aesthetically designed and spiritually inspired. Divine group brings you this modern day marvel at Pipli Kurukshetra Road. The establishment will accommodate everything from top notch brands to the most renowned corporate houses.

Why Kurukshetra?

Because an investment in divinity pays the best interest.

No one can be a stranger in a land so full of heritage.

Kurukshetra is probably the most famous religious site in India and one of the most ancient places of pilgrimage in the world. The name of Kurukshetra derives from a tribe, Kuru. The city is said to be as old as the Rigveda, and was also called Saryanvat.

A wise traveler knows that in the present, he can find the past.

Situated at a distance of 3 km from Kurukshetra Railway Station on Pehowa Road, Sannihit Sarovar is believed to be the permanent abode of Lord Vishnu. Purohites who have their offices on the banks of Sannihit Sarovar, keeping the records hundreds of years old of the pilgrims coming from various parts of the country.

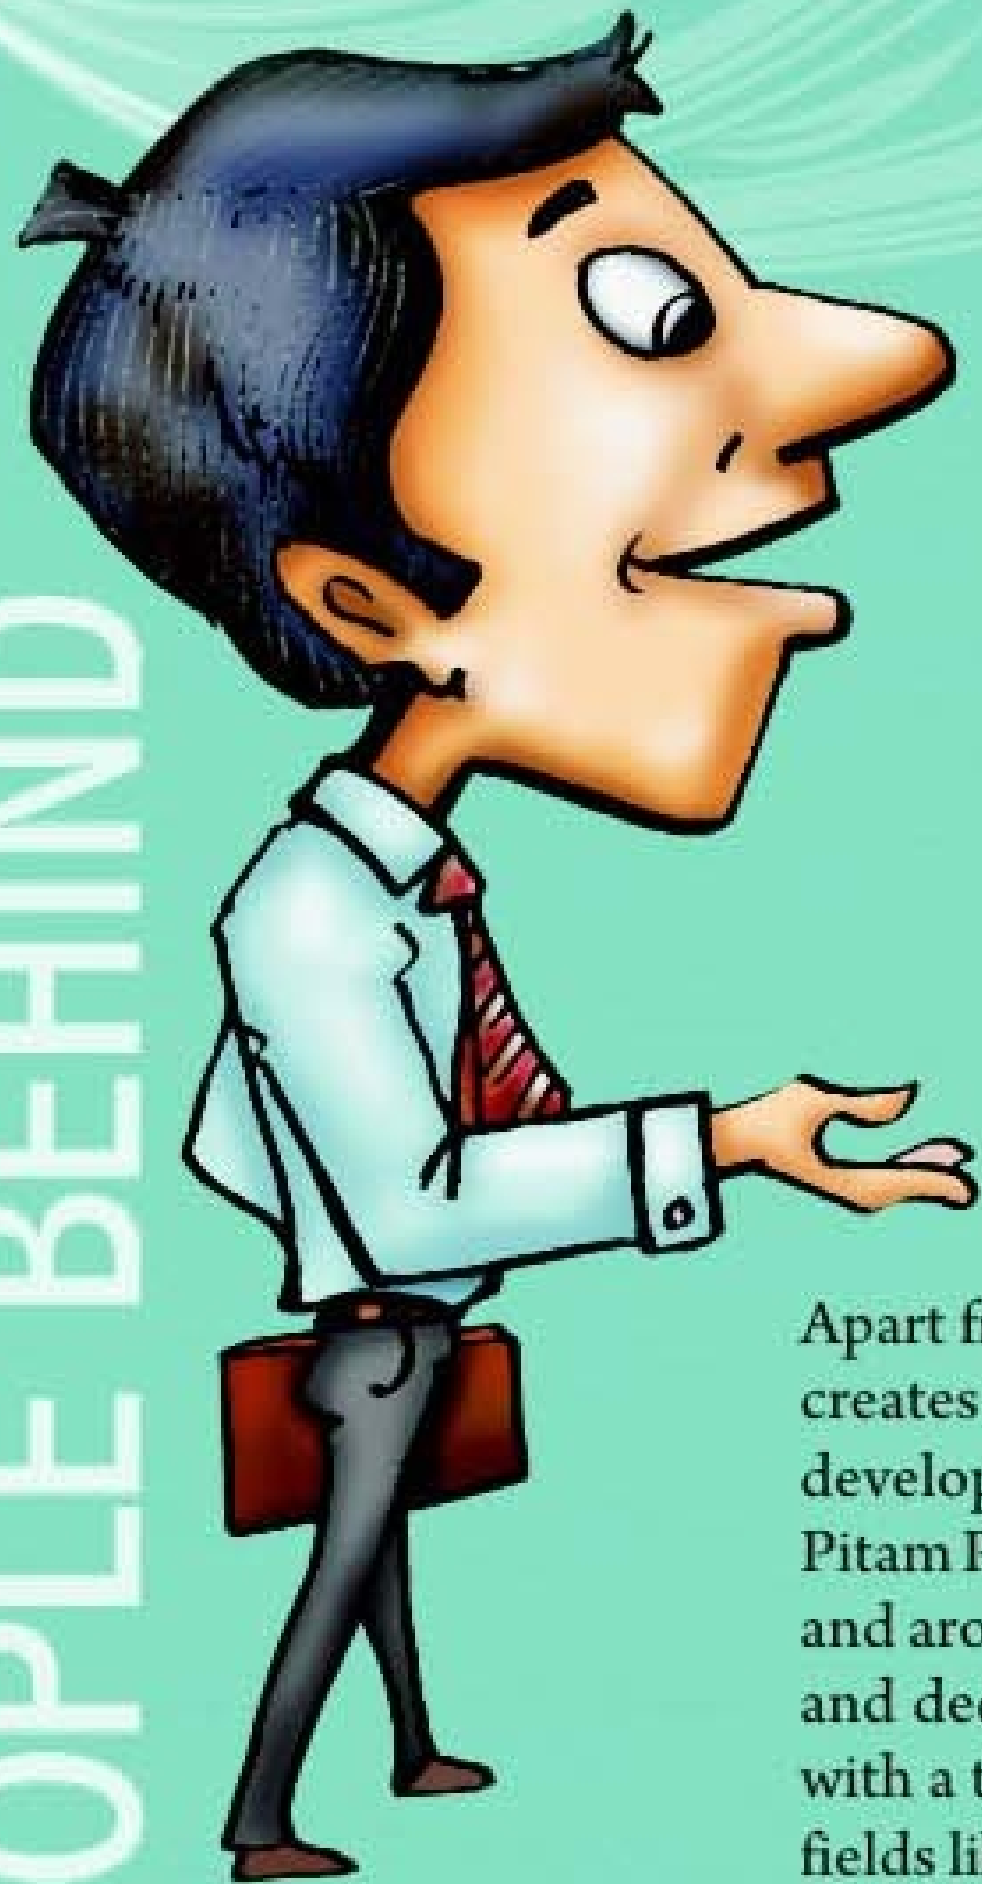

The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows

Kurukshetra has been declared as the land of Dharma or righteousness in the very first shloka of Srimadbhagwad Gita. Located in the holy city of Kurukshetra, where the Lord himself appeared as the teacher and guide of Arjun is a world-class university. Its campus is situated on the western bank of Brahm Sarover (the holy tank) and extends over an area of over 400 acres.

Yeh mera INDIA!

A holy city with immense tourism capability, Kurukshetra has a deep penetration of NRIs alongside local residents. Not just that, it lies in the route of many affluent towns and villages that are home to the Non-resident Indians.
