Le Garden

Modern Villas at Noida Extn.

Living has many facets in these modern times. But the most preferred way of living that has evolved is the apartments. Probably not out of choice, but out of budget constraints. Given an opportunity, nobody would prefer the bi-rises against living on a sprawling piece of land. And meeting this niche need are Ajnara Le Garden Villas. Built with an emphasis on unconfined living, these villas offer lifestyle at its spacious best. Style statements in themselves, Le Garden will fulfill the urge of living in a villa yet within the budget constraints of a common man.

The location of these villas is another plus. Located in Noida Extn., Le Garden offers the most preferred living destination of Delhi NCR. Noida Extension is Noida minus its shortcomings. The roads are wider, environs are greener, haphazard or unplanned construction is completely absent and amenities and infrastructure like roads, power/water supply, transportation, educational/health institutions, markets etc. leave nothing to be desired.
