About Us

AMARPRAKASH is one of the fastest growing Developers, already completed 5 projects in south chennai alone in a span of 11 months and further coming up with projects totaling to about 2000 units in this quarter. Drawing a home with little hands and crayons is an inseparable part of our childhood. No science can make theories to explain why children around the world draw homes, surrounded with lush green garden, a blossoming lawn, a smiling sun and a river flowing alongside. It is perhaps because at every stage of our life, We continue to dream about our home. As we grow up, this idea of our dream home acquires a clear and a distinct shape. The home that we drew with our little hands becomes an important dream in our life eventually. And, at AMARPRAKASH, we believe in turning these dreams in to reality. It's more than a mission. It's the way we do things around here every day !

Mission

To establish a coordination with our clients and the community of excellence in environmental management through safe, economical, state of the art means, providing our clients with the best quality products and service. Our commitment to safety of every living shall be of utmost importance. Service with Class - we have built our business and our reputation upon it.

Vision

"What is a vision if not the blueprint of our ultimate achievements?" At AMARPRAKASH, It has forever been our endeavor to become the most progressive name. A vision fueled by our ability to deliver quality, professionalism and value to match the best from across the globe. A vision that aims towards developing India, into a fully developed nation, for the benefit of our beloved countrymen.
