VIKIROLI

MUMBAI'S RISING RESIDENTIAL HUB

Vikhroli is an eastern locale in Mumbai, with Powai in the west, Ghatkopar in the south-west, and Bhandup in the north.

Since Vikhroli falls in the central region of Mumbai, it offers seamless connectivity to South Mumbai and Western Suburbs, including Andheri, Bandra, Malad, and more. Also, the Eastern Express Highway in Vikhroli connects it with Vashi, Dadar, Chembur, and Thane.

Vikhroli is also home to a large number of industrial & IT hubs, making it a highly desirable location for living. Due to its demand, many homebuyers are willing to invest in Vikhroli.
